and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Regardless of your choice of candidates for the U. S. Senate, be sure to make this choice known Saturday by taking the time to vote. Every citizen in the state should have a voice in selecting the man to fill this important post.

Many people have asked School Superintendent Cook why the high school's baseball team doesn't play anymore games than it does. It seems Hamlin and Cisco are the only two teams in this district and there are only five teams in this quarter of the state. This limits rather drastically the teams that can be scheduled since the larger schools have full schedules.

There have been a number of stories lately on the baseball problems of the state high schools. It seems baseball is the weakest of the many sports in our high schools and there have been several solutions advanced to help solve some of the problems. One of these suggestions is to run the program on into the summer because of the short time available for the sport during the regular school term after the weather clears.

Since I am a member of the Jaycees, it makes it a little difficult to pass out compliments to the organization but I feel that their efforts in promoting the Junior Tennis Tournament this past weekend should be commended for the value this meet was to our city. The tourney brought many people from this area into town and they all expressed their appreciation to Hamlin and the Jaycees for the opportunity of having a place to compete.

We need to do more in the way of offering our facilities to our neighbors in this area if we are to hold our own and grow as the trade center for this area.

Open House Set For Girl's Summer Recreation Course

The Girl's Summer Recreation Program will be sponsored again this year by the Hamlin Jaycees in cooperation with Hamlin Public Schools.

Open house and recreation will be held June 6 at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium with Miss Billye Shirley, Women's Physical Education Director at Hardin-Simmons University, as guest speaker.

Activities, including swimming, tennis, volleyball, badminton, table tennis, golf, tumbling and basketball, will begin at 3:30 p.m. June 8 and continue for eight weeks.

Baton twirling instructions will be held July 24-25-27 and 28.

The entry fee will be $5. Those eligible to participate will be girls from the 6 grade to the 12 grade.

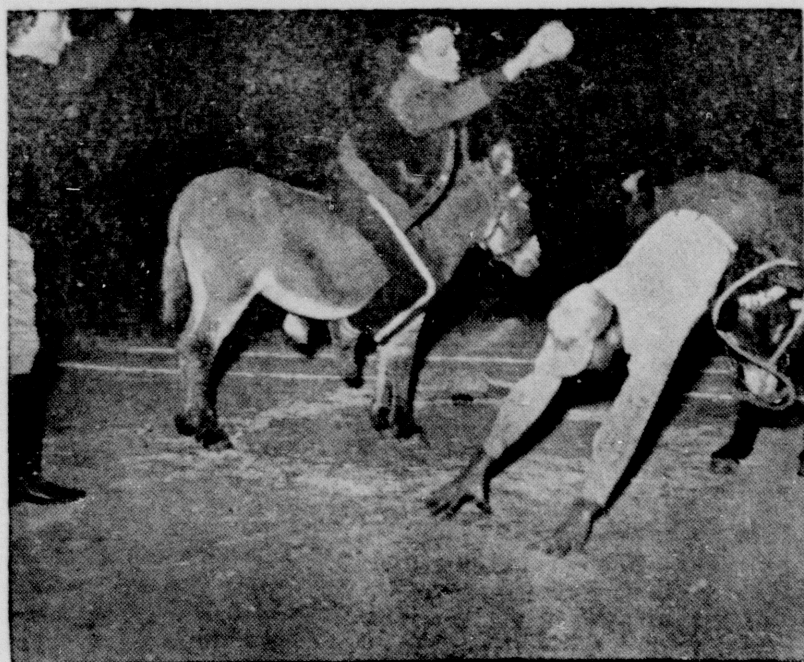

Edd Farmer, Hamlin High School girls basketball coach, will be director of the program.

Rotary Club Honors Outstanding Pupils

Several outstanding high school students and their parents were guests of the Hamlin Rotary Club at their luncheon meeting Wednesday, May 17, in the Oil Mill Guest House.

A boy and girl were selected from each class, on the basis of character, scholarship, service and leadership, to receive certificates of award presented by the club. Nominations were made by the students of each class and submitted to the faculty for the final choice.

Certificates were presented to Kay McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCoy, and Nick Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moore, freshman class; Gloria Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Jenkins, and Mark Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Smith, sophomore class; Mary Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, and Neal Branscum, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Branscum, junior class; Nina Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Jean, and Wayne Boatright, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Boatright, senior class,

Voters to Elect U. S. Senator At Polls Saturday

Voters across Texas will go to the polls Saturday to decide who will serve them for the next five and a half years as U. S. Senator. William Blakely and John Tower were the top men in the run-off election held April 4 in a field of 71 candidates.

Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

The election will fill the vacancy created when Vice President Lyndon Johnson resigned the seat.

City Checking on New Water Pumps For Stamford Line

In a meeting of the City Council, held May 16 in the City Hall, the engineering firm of Frees, Nichols and Andrews from Fort Worth advised the council on the purchase of new water pumps needed at the Stamford plant to pump water to Hamlin.

Due to the increase of water consumption here the pumps now in operation are unable to furnish as much water as needed.

Also the firm presented a report made on the condition of the old paving and mapped out streets that will need to be seal coated this summer.

They are now preparing specification to call for bids on the work.

Two Teachers Resign Here

A. P. Williams resigned his position as junior high school math teacher this week, according to C. F. Cook, superintendent of Hamlin Schools.

Also resigning at the end of this semester was the Rev. Huron Polnac Jr., pastor of the McCaulley Baptist Church, who taught English I and kept the Library. He will work on his doctorate at Baylor University.

These resignations along with that of Coach Leslie Fambrough, received earlier in the year, creates three vacancies in the faculty of Hamlin Schools.

Edd Farmer Named To Clinic Staff

Edd Farmer, Hamlin High School girls basketball coach, has been selected to appear on the program at the Summer Coaching Clinic of the Texas High School Girls Basketball Association at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

According to Charles E. Womack of Hawley, school director, the clinic will be held July 13, 14, and 15.

Parade, Pageant Opens Clean-Up Drive Today

A street parade at 3 p.m. today will get the Hamlin Jaycees' second annual Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up campaign underway. The clean-up drive will close June 3. The highlight of the kick-off will be the crowning of Miss Beauty of Hamlin at the contest to be held at the High School Auditorium tonight at 8.

The 32 girls who are candidates for the honor will be featured in the parade that will be led by the Hamlin High School marching band under the direction of Tim Jones.

VFW to Sell Buddy Poppies Here Saturday

Buddy Poppies will be sold in Hamlin Saturday by members of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars, it's ladies Auxiliary, and other volunteer workers.

In almost every town and village in America the Buddy Poppy sales are held just prior to Memorial Day which is May 30. This has been the custom since 1922 when the V. F. W. conducted its first nationwide Buddy Poppy sale.

It cost the nation approximately $4,500 to $10,000 a year for each patient in the Veterans Administration Hospitals across the nation. Some have known no other home for 10 or 20 years. Funds raised by the sale of V. F. W. Buddies Poppies go far to provide extra comforts for these men.

According to Paul Galey, local V. F. W. Post Commander, and Zelma Perryman, ladies Auxiliary president, citizens of Hamlin, along with people all over America, will be asked to wear a Buddy Poppy to "honor the dead by helping the living."

May Rain Totals 2.22 Inches; Year Behind Average

The moisture received in the Hamlin area since the first of January is 5.94 inches, which is below the 7 inch average for this time of year, according to Bill Rountree at the City Pump Station.

Small amounts of rain has fallen on five separate occasions this month totalling 2.22 inches. Some hail was reported with most of the damage west of town.

Amounts reported by Mr. Rountree were May 7-.03 inches; May 8-.08 inches; May 18-1.17 inches; May 19-.91 and May 23-.03 inches.

Several organizations in the city will take part in the parade.

An added feature of this year's campaign will be a $25 Savings Bond to be awarded to the family that does the best job of cleaning up and fixing up their property during the contest period. Elsewhere in this issue is an entry blank for the contest that must be completed and mailed or carried to the BCD office by June 5.

The 32 contestants viewing for the honor of reigning as queen during the clean up campaign are being sponsored by the various merchants and organizations of Hamlin.

The meeting will highlight "Operation-Better Hamlin" at which time recognition will be given ladies clubs and individuals for their participation in the project. "Operation-Better Hamlin" is a joint BCD-Women's Club effort to enlist the help of every Hamlin housewife to make Hamlin a better place to live.

No plans have been made for any special observance of this day for the city.

Lightning Damages Jack Bond Home

Lightning struck the home of Jack Bond at 344 S. W. Ave. D. during the thunderstorm that passed over Hamlin about 2:20 a.m. Friday.

Striking the television antenna, the bolt of electricity traveled down the pole to a grounded water pipe and not only ruined their T. V. but also the washing machine and damaged their kitchen sink.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, TEX.—Legislature goes into the final stretch of the regular session with the possibility of a photo finish. Individual lawmakers alternated hope and despair about the prospects of getting all-around agreement on a tax plan by May 29. Many expressed fear of home district criticism if matters are allowed to drag through the summer, as happened in 1959. In the final, chips-down stage, it looks like a Governor vs. Legislature battle. A majority of both houses has gone on record for tax plans which have a fairly general 2 per cent sales tax as the major source. Gov. Price Daniel says, in effect, that he doesn't want to be hard to live with but he isn't about to back down now on his 25-year anti-sales tax stand. Senators re-worked the major tax bills sent them by the House -- the 2 per cent sales tax and the all-purpose "loop-hole bill" -- into a combination package. In the package was a 2 per cent sales tax on items of 25 cents and more (with exemptions on food, drugs, etc.), an increase in the natural gas production tax from 7 per cent to 8 per cent, and a hike in the corporate franchise tax. They also jacked up the driver's license fee from $2 to $3. Senate sponsors estimate that it would raise $327,000,000 in the next two years.

Senator A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris made an effort to get the senate to substitute a bill favored by the governor that would limit new general sales taxes to items costing $10 or more. It also would have levied selective taxes on motor tools and appliances, building materials, stock sales, restaurant meals, etc. Senate turned down the governor's substitute, 17-to-14, then gave final passage to its own bill, 19-to-12. LOAN BILL DELAYED—Tax matters delayed Senate progress on legislation to regulate the small loan industry. A re-worked version of the loan bill passed by the House was prepared by a special subcommittee of the Senate State Affairs Committee. In general, the Senate subcommittee's bill appears to allow for higher charges on smaller loans and lower charges on higher loans. It sets up a schedule of "service charges" that are not to be considered interest. Whatever the outcome, hopes for passing a loan bill that will satisfy interested groups are nil. If charges are low, the bill will be criticized for "putting loan companies out of business" to poor people can't borrow money. If rates are high, it "legalizes the sharks."

DRIVER LAW TIGHTENED House passed on second reading a bill that would put more pressure on drivers who do not carry liability insurance or have the means to pay for an accident. Reps. Ben Lewis of Dallas and Robert Fairchild of Center, sponsors, pointed out that only about 60 per cent of Texas drivers carry insurance. Among provisions of the proposed bill is one that would cause a driver to lose his license if convicted of two moving traffic violations within a year and he did not carry insurance.

REDISTRICTING APPROVED—Despite disappointments and conflicts, a legislative redistricting bill has passed both House and Senate. Sen. J. P. Fuller carried on a nine-hour filibuster against the Senate portion of the bill. Fuller protested that Jefferson County (Beaumont-Port Arthur) has more than enough population to be a one-county district. In the bill Jefferson is placed in a district with Orange, as before.

Nor is all good cheer in the House where a number of members face the prospect of running against each other. Many rural areas with dwindling populations were enlarged or combined with other districts. Rep. Will Ehrle of Childress, who is placed in the same district with Paducah, Rep. Bill Heatly of Vaden, has announced that he has given up the idea of running for speaker next term.

CLUB REGULATIONS PASSED—A bill to license and regulate private clubs serving liquor by the drink gained final House passage. Rep. Tom James of Dallas, sponsor, declared it was a law enforcement needed by the liquor control board in order to halt saloons operating in the guise of private clubs. Opponents declared it would legalize liquor by the drink.

Under the bill, clubs would pay annual license fees ranging from $500 to $10,000. "SIT-INS" ARE TARGET—A bill aimed at outlawing "sit-ins" and "stand-ins" has received preliminary House approval. Rep. Lloyd Martin of Norman is author of the bill. It would provide a fine of $200 for persons who refuse to leave a business establishment after being asked to do so. TAX REFUND ORDERED -- State must return to several Dallas liquor stores $89,246 in liquor taxes paid under protest, says the State Supreme Court.

These are taxes paid by the stores on liquor in stock before the effective date of an increased tax passed by the Legislature in 1959. Not involved in this suit is another $73,937 in liquor taxes paid under protest under the same circumstances. DPS EXAMS ANNOUNCED--Young men between 21 and 35 may make application through June 9 to attend the next school for the state highway patrolmen. Department of Public Safety has announced that men meeting patrol's standards will take exams in several cities June 13, 14, and 15. Prospective applicants may write to the Department of Public Safety at Austin for information.

FLOOD OF BILLS--With the clock running out in this session, a large volume of bills is being moved at a swifter pace. Riding in the flood are bills that would: 1. Take the University of Houston into a state-supported college system. Bill finally passed the Senate after nearly a month of delays, but must be passed again in the House. 2. Provide up to $12 a month for medical, hospital and nursing care for persons on the state welfare rolls. Passed by Senate.

3. Recodify the school laws and cut the number of hours future teachers must spend in courses on how to teach. Passed by the House. 4. Allow for payment of state aid to school districts on the basis of the present year's attendance rather than the previous year's. Passed by the Senate. 5. Outlaw sale of obscene pictures, books, magazines or phonograph records. Passed by House. Penalty for violation would be a fine up to $2,500, a prison term up to two years or both. 6. Increase the annual barber's license fee from $5 to $10 and set up higher requirements for barber colleges. Passed by House. 7. Allow the Veterans Land Board to sell forfeited lands to persons other than veterans. This is a constitutional amendment and would have to be voted on by the people. Sponsors said the measure was aimed at providing a way for the state to get back money involved in the "block deals" that erupted in the "land scandals." Passed by Senate. 8. Require registration of pest extermination services with the State Agriculture Commissioner. Given preliminary Senate passage. 9. Reorganize the State Water Board as the Texas Water Commission with a three-man board for policy making and a chief engineer to administer the department. Passed by the House. 10. Set filing fees for candidates for state office in general or special elections at 5 per cent of a year's salary. Passed by House. 11. Require cities whose firemen are in the state pension plan to contribute more to the pension fund. Given preliminary House passage.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas Railroad Commission has ordered the present eight-day production pattern for the oil industry continued through June. But since June has only 30 days, compared to 31 in May, the daily allowable for June will be up by 48,013 barrels a day for a daily flow of 2,702,699 barrels. Texas Employment Commission has launched a "hire now" drive in an effort to take up the slack in the Texas labor supply. Employment in Texas has increased in the past few weeks, says a TEC spokesman, but is still lagging behind this period last year.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER SAYS LONG RANGE ROCKETS ARE EASIER TO SOLVE THAN LONG RANGE FARM PLAN

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 discusses steer hides and space, among other things, in his letter this week. Dear editor:

I was using the margin of a newspaper to do some figuring on last night, what I was figuring was how many cow hides it takes to buy a pair of shoes, on account of I had a prime Jersey steer butchered the other day and discovered the hide which weighed 32 pounds brought $2.56, which is 8 cents a pound, and based on a pair of $20 shoes, that's eight hides to pay for one pair, and while I have never made it'd take that much leather, even for a size 12. In fact, I glanced down at my feet, or rather out, as I had them propped up at the time, and I calculated a careful worker ought to get three or four pairs out of one steer hide, and by that time my figures had run off of the margin and into a news article and to get my mind off the lack of parity in steer hides and shoes I read it.

According to it, Secretary of Agriculture Freeman told Congress a "successful long-range farm program is more important to this nation than putting a man in space."

Now I agree with him 100 per cent, but what Mr. Freeman is ignoring is that putting a man in space, as hard as it is, is a lot easier than solving the farm problem.

A successful long-range rocket missile, as complicated as it is, is child's play compared with a successful long-range farm program.

With missiles and other space exploits, you're prepared for a number of failures before you get on target, but attacking the farm problem is the only endeavor man has ever undertaken without any hope or permanent success at all.

Some people keep wondering what space exploration is all about, what we're going to find out there that's worth anything, but they miss the point entirely.

The purpose of exploring space is to get our minds off the problems of earth. Space can be whipped, but the earth can't.

Personally, I'm not interested in learning how to guide a rocket around the earth with me in it, but I believe it'd be easier than figuring out a successful long-range farm program. I'm glad I don't have either job. Which job you want? Yours faithfully, J. A.

LOCAL BUSINESS...

S. S. Talbert, Ph. D. Chairman, Dept. of Journalism University of Mississippi

"Too often we don't locate customers because we don't know who our competitors are..." A furniture dealer speaking to fellow merchants at a convention recently expressed this opinion.

"We are not so much in competition with other furniture dealers as we are with other types of firms," he said.

The speaker cited the potential purchase of a young married couple. "There was a time, when the first big purchase would be for good furniture. However, now if a young couple has any savings it may go to any one of a dozen different places," he said.

Some of the competitors of the local furniture store, or any other local store, may be hundreds or thousands of miles away, the dealer pointed out.

"The couple may decide to spend their whole pile on a tour of Europe and spend their first year sitting on apple crates. They may buy a second automobile manufactured abroad. The young wife may order a fur coat from a Manhattan department store."

"All of these businesses are advertising in my hometown and your hometown in magazines, television, and regional newspapers. They are getting a large share of the business which we used to take for granted. They are our chief competitors -- not the dealer down the street.

"Rather than fighting one another, our best answer to this challenge is more and better advertising of our own which will keep this money in the local market," the speaker said.

Good highways are the lifelines of commerce, industry, and recreation.

REPORT FROM AUSTIN . . .

By REP. LEON THURMAN

This is May 18th, and we have approximately seven more working days left in this session and it is our hope and desire that we can finish the work for the people of Texas on time.

The Senate has passed the redistricting bill as it came out of the House. We would like to have kept the 85th District as it was with Jones, Stone, King and Dickens; however, this was impossible because of the population decrease of this District, and it became necessary to draw new lines. Our primary concern was an attempt to place Jones County as a floatorial District with Taylor County. We have been successful in stalling this attempt and have been placed in a District with Baylor, Knox, Haskell and Throckmorton Counties. This will not be bad, because most of us are rural people and have something in common.

The Senate has passed on second reading the tax bill and probably will pass it on third reading today, and it will come to the House for concurrence or rejection. It is our understanding that this tax bill will take care of everything except the teacher's pay raise, and it will give them only $800 increase instead of the proposed $800. We cannot object to this too much; however, we would

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

BOYS WANT TO KEEP BOSS IN HIGH SPIRITS

Dear Amy:

My boss went to the hospital to undergo surgery and he's feeling pretty low. A few of the fellows suggested we chip in and send him something. Everybody had a different suggestion. We ruled out plant (too feminine), a basket of fruit (nobody went for it) and ajamas (they said let his wife say that). But the guys all agreed on a bottle of liquor. They think we would appreciate that more than anything else.

What do you think? Is it in good taste?

Committee Chairman

Dear Chairman:

Although your gift may be tasty, the boss, sending liquor to a hospital patient is a new one on me. His spirits may be low, but your gift may make him high! Check with his Doc.

Dear Amy:

My husband and I are farm folks and the parents of an only child. We worked hard all our lives and saved nickels and dimes to get enough money together to send our boy to a good out-of-state college. We did without many necessities and the smallest luxuries to give him the books he needed, the proper clothes and the right fraternity membership. We neglected our lives to make a better life for him. Well, our dream is soon to be realized. His graduation is in June which we have looked forward to since the day he was born.

Last week he wrote us saying that this is the largest graduating class the college has ever had so they are limiting the tickets for graduation exercises to two per student. He went on to say how sorry he is that we cannot come because his girl and her mother will be attending. Need I tell you what his father and I are going through. What shall we do, Amy? We lived our lives to witness this day of happiness for which we have given so much.

Heartbroken Parents

Dear Parents:

By the time a boy reaches manhood he should have learned the basic ingredients of human kindness. Namely: 'To Honor His Father and Mother.' When parents spend a lifetime of giving and demand nothing in return, that's what they usually get.

Write him immediately. Tell him if you don't receive those tickets within the week, you will bring it to the attention of the Dean. I hope this won't be necessary, but it will bring results.

Dear Amy:

Someone who says they know you very well told my parents that Amy Adams is not your real name. Is that true? I hope you won't think I have a nerve for asking you this question. I'm 13. If it's too personal, don't tell me, but if you want to tell me, I would like to know why you don't write under your given name.

Carol

Dear Carol:

Because my given name is not nearly as interesting... and for another reason. When I was your age, I wrote a poem and signed it 'Amy Adams'. It won first prize. 'Amy' has been very good to me and I've stuck by her ever since.

Dear Amy:

I'm sure many other girls have this same problem so I am hoping you will have an answer to help me and all the other girls. I'm 14 and I like a certain boy very much. I've known him ever since I was 4 years old. We grew up together but I don't think he ever realized that I was a girl. What I mean is we always played baseball, football and just fooled around like that. And now I am too old to play football and baseball. But how do I tell him or let him know that I am a GIRL and that I like him very much?

Tomboy

Dear Tomboy:

Be patient! There comes a time in every boy's life when he washes behind his ears without being told, combs his hair because he wants to, notices girls he never knew existed and suddenly realizes that a baseball isn't the only thing with a curve!

PERSONAL to Princess:

Get down off your throne! Then the boys won't be afraid to 'court' you.

Please address all letters to: AMY ADAMS c/o THIS NEWSPAPER

BARBARA BUTLER AND JACK DOWNEY EXCHANGE VOWS

Barbara Ellen Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Butler, 612 Northwest Avenue H, and Jack Henry Downey of Ft. Worth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Downey, Route 3, exchanged wedding vows in Calvary Baptist Church here Saturday, evening at 8:00 p.m.

The Rev. Royce Campbell, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an archway of greenery which was topped with wedding bells and centered with a floor basket of white gladioli. Candelabra on either side completed the altar setting.

The Saturday evening wedding was the first to be held in the new church which was completed the later part of last year.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Don Drummond of Abernathy, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

Larry Butler, brother of the bride, was usher with David Bingham.

Linda Bingham presented wedding music. Mrs. L. B. Brunner Jr. was soloist. She sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Given in Marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of white brocade satin studded with three-quarter length sleeves, scoop neckline with self covered buttons accenting the front of the bodice.

A sild organxa cummerbund marked the waistline. A flat bow of silk organza held a circular veil of net. She carried a white colonial bouquet of white gladioli.

Mrs. Drummond wore a street length dress of blue brocade cotton satin styled along the same lines as that of the bride with short sleeves and self belt. She wore a small headpiece of blue net and carried a white colonial bouquet pom pom mums.

The reception following the ceremony was hosted by the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a white lace tablecloth over blue and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli. Crystal and silver appointments completed the table decor.

Mmes. Royce Campbell, J. W. Carter and Charles Pearce served. Candace Thompson registered guests.

For traveling the bride chose a bone and coffee colored dress with jacket and bone accessories. Her corsage of white gladioli was taken from her bridal bouquet. The couple will be at home after May 23 in Ft. Worth where he is employed with Convar.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents on Saturday evening, May 13. Blue and white decorations were used.

Things are looking up out our way since last week's writing. Last Wednesday and Thursday nights we received about three and one half inches of much needed rain. The rain was of no benefit to the wheat as the wheat harvest is going good, but all are just thankful that not any more hail fell than what did. For a while Wednesday night it looked as if the hail was sure to fall, but only a little hail accompanied the torrential rain that fell. Any time any hail at all falls it damages ripe wheat but we are all so thankful that it was so light.

Cotton planting will really begin around Thursday, the farmers say. With a good season they can plant with the assurance that it will come up. Maize that was up and plowed out is really growing now, so the farmers are singing a happy song this week instead of the dry weather blues.

We are so thankful for the good rains the past week. There was some wheat damage, but we feel the rain we received to plant cotton on more than compensates for the wheat damage.

The grain harvest had just started when the first rain came on Wednesday and if the weather stays pretty as it is now it will be in full swing on Monday or as soon as the ground dries.

HOW TO INVEST TEN MILLION DOLLARS

These recent photographs show construction progress on the new generating station at Oak Creek Lake, and some of the massive equipment to be used in it. Huge size of the equipment can be seen by comparison with the flat cars which transported it.

Symbol of the Future

Any way you look at it, an investment of $10 million in future growth is evidence that we are convinced this growth is coming.

The new generating station at Oak Creek Lake — costing in excess of that figure — is showing rapid construction progress.

But it is only one phase of WTU's long range expansion plans. Still another such station is on the drawing boards, as well as major additions to our transmission and distribution system.

This is the way we are preparing for coming growth in our service area — from the Red River to the Rio Grande. It is a SYMBOL OF THE FUTURE in the Center of the Southwest.

OLD GLORY NEWS--

By HELEN DIERS

Glover Nickerson, who has resigned as science teacher at Old Glory, and his wife, Laurie, have moved to Ohio.

The Old Glory school turned out on May 19, but students came back on May 22 for their report cards.

Grade school graduation was held on May 19; high school Baccalaureate was on May 21; high school commencement was on May 22. The Seniors left on their trip to the Smoky Mountain of Tennessee on May 23 at 3:00 a.m.

The Old Glory School Board members, their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Bunyan Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Pringle, and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron House entertained the teachers and their "podners" at a barbecue chicken supper in the school cafeteria Tuesday night. A western theme was emphasized with clever and colorful decorations.

After the meal, the group enjoyed home movies provided by Allen Letz, Arron House, and Tom Pritchard; then those who were able played their own style of volleyball in the gym.

Thirty one people attended the party.

On Friday, May 12, the students of Old Glory had a picnic. Three buses took the high school, the 5, 6, 7, and 8 grades, and the 1, 2, 3, and 4 grades to their picnic places. The groups started at 8:30 a.m. and returned at 5:00 p.m.

The high school group went to Lake Cisco. During the morning, the students went through the Cisco Dam and played miniature golf. In the afternoon (after a filling meal of fried chicken and the trimmings), some went skating, swimming, played miniature golf, rested and enjoyed the shade, or explored the mountains.

The second and third groups went to Abilene. Group 3 visited the Coca-Cola Bottling Plant and a fire station. They enjoyed their lunch in the park and a visit to the interesting sites of the park.

THE COACHES' CORNER . . .

(Part of a series of articles by the coaching staff of Hamlin High School.)

By D. C. Andrews
An athletic field day is a nearly perfect symbol of America's free enterprise system. The athletic contest is a laboratory in which our democracy is tested.

Entrance requirements for athletics are liberal. Training is helpful, usually necessary, and all who train are developed and improved by it. Each contestant has an inalienable right to win a ribbon—two or three ribbons. Only one can be first in each contest, of course, but champions are not chosen in advance. The athlete soon realizes that there can be only one champion and therefore he learns to adjust to this situation. In life he must make this adjustment for he may never reach the top of any profession he enters.

In every sense contemplated in our Declaration of Independence, amateur athletes are created equal. They are equal under the rules. Each has a fair chance, and keen competition makes a good field day. Athletics is competition against many standards and competition against another physical being. If all had been created equal physically, every fair race or contest would end in a tie. By such a system there would be no incentive, no competition, no training and no development. The incentive in athletics comes from the thought that no individual will be better in any way. Competition is the grading of each individual against another. And for competition to gain its fullest value we must train better and develop more than another individual. Today, people compete on all levels and aspects of life. But very few realize that we must be dedicated to this competition just as subject matter is taught in our schools.

It is the same in free enterprise: Universal effort to achieve success develops the whole nation. A few contestants gain wealth, recognition, prominence, influence. These are ribbons, incentives to make competition. Broad-scale progress results from universal effort. A great nation is not made up of a few successful individuals but is made up of many individuals attempting to gain success. It is composed of ambitious legions or teams, able to do things and doing them. The price of retaining this freedom or way of life we have today is eternal vigilance on the part of those who work for it and appreciate it.

May 31 Deadline For Grain Program

M. S. Jones, County Office Manager of the Jones County ASC, reminds feed grain producers of the approaching May 31st deadline for the signing of an intention to participate in the 1961 Feed Grain Program.

Jones states that as of May 22nd approximately 500 producers had signed applications to participate in the program and further stated that from 50 to 100 applications were being received daily.

The office Manager advises that the County Office will remain open on Memorial Day, May 30th, in order that producers may be given opportunity to participate in the program.

PAT BOONE STARS IN 'ALL HANDS ON DECK' SUNDAY

One of the liveliest spoofs of any season on the sober operations of the U. S. Navy, comes to the screen in "All Hands on Deck," 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope DeLux Color movie, opening Sunday at the Rouse and Drive In Theatre with Pat Boone, Buddy Hackett, Dennis O'Keefe and Barbara Eden.

It's all about the zany doings aboard the 1st "St. Clair County," Lieutenant Donald (Pat Boone) in command, when a pretty girl reporter named Sally Hobson (Barbara Eden) garbed as a gob, stows away, and a Chickashaw Indian crew member, Shrieking Eagle Garfield (Buddy Hackett) decides to bring a live turkey aboard as a mascot. All commissioned ranks from the Admiral down to the ship's skipper (Dennis O'Keefe) are aroused by this set of irregular circumstances, and it is not long before the Departments of Defense, Interior and the U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs are collaborating to spur a Congressional Investigation.

How the web of laugh-packed nonsense untangles itself, aboard and ashore is the burden of a rollicking, frolicking take-off punctuated with plenty of romance and the "plus" of four new song-hits delivered by Pat Boone in the inimitable and celebrated manner of this top national favorite. Pat gets Barbara, nobody gets cashiered, and the turkey gets a pelican for a mate, and with "all hands on deck" ending up in high gear and fine fettle.

Buddy Hackett, playing Shrieking Eagle Garfield, wins fresh laurels on the heels of television fanfares as the "new comic of the year. He has slimmed down to a comfortable 200 pounds in recent months (47-lbs slimmer!) and throws his new weight around with hilarious impact as he guides the destiny of his pet turkey through a sea of schemes for its undoing. Dennis O'Keefe, who plays the pivotal role of the ship's skipper, turns to a delightful performance as an officer driven frantic beyond the call of duty by circumstances no serious serviceman should have to contemplate.

Barbara Eden, curvaceous and enchanting even in a sailor-suit twice her size, is the delectable Sally Hobson, girl reporter, whose ideas for getting a good story come into conflict with navy regulations. She latches on to her man, however, with verve, pertness and wiley calculation, a combination of talents that have put this pleasant miss on top of filmdom's favored rosters of "finds."

Barry Cheshier Elected Hamlin Band President

Hamlin Pied Piper Band elected officers for the 1961-62 school term. Those elected were Barry Cheshier, president; Linda Bingham, vice president; secretary and treasurer, Sunny Teague; reporter and social chairman, Sue Johnson.

Thelma McClung was appointed librarian by director Tim Jones.

Drum major and majorette try-outs were held Saturday at the Pied Piper stadium. Those chosen were Drum major, Barry Cheshier; majorettes, Sunny Teague, Lagena Weaver, Margaret Maberry and Anna Adams. Head majorette will be appointed at a later date.

Completion of the 41,000-mile National System of Interstate and Defense Highways will save an estimated 4,000 lives a year.
